

CRADDOCK CONNECTION

FAMILY NEWSLETTER

SEPTEMBER, 1990

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 10

Bet you were wondering why you never received your August Issue of the Craddock Connection. Well, wonder no more, it's here, along with my apologies and the September Issue.

It's one thing to forget your hair appointment, it's an entirely different thing when your hairdresser forgets your appointment. If you can't have confidence in your hairdresser, then who can you have confidence in? That may have even been responsible for my inability to get the newsletter out on time last month. Well, perhaps allowances could be made just once. What if your hairdresser just happened to be contemplating the dreaded task of preparing chicken fried steak for her husband? I'm sure it would have to be something like that to cause such a dedicated beautician to forget your hair.

The ever expanding Craddock population has a brand new member. We are happy to welcome Devon Jay Michael Craddock to the Craddock Connection. Devon, son of Ronnie Craddock and Lisa Renda, made his debut into this world, July 3rd, 1990. I had the pleasure of meeting him for the first time today. He is a cutie. Ronnie is already talking about getting him (the baby) a fishing pole.

The past few days have been rough on Leesa, she was bitten, on the neck, by a Fiddleback spider. After two trips to the Dr., an injection, three prescriptions of pills, a few sleepless nights, and many prayers, she is happy to have things back to normal again. So am I.

Rosalee Nath, Grady County Treasurer will be in office for another 4 yrs. as she didn't draw an opponent this election year. I'm sure they all knew there was no chance of winning since they already have the best treasurer. We're happy for you Rosy.

CRADDOCK HISTORY "CONTINUED MEMORIES"

BY FAY FINLEY

Every Sunday in the early twenties, the table would be surrounded by love struck young gents, looking at Noma. Lon would tease Ada and say, boy, they love your cooking, and besides good lookin' children, you are a pleasure to see. Ada would snort, and also suppress a smile. She was very human and like we, enjoyed any and all compliments. But we children thought, our Dad and Mom was the most handsome and pleasant couple in all the country.

And coming to Him as to a living stone, rejected by men, but choice and precious in the sight of God, you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

For this is contained in scripture: "BEHOLD I LAY IN ZION A CHOICE STONE, A PRECIOUS CORNER STONE, AND HE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM SHALL NOT BE DISAPPOINTED."

I Peter 2: 4-6
