

CRADDOCK CONNECTION

Family Newsletter

March 1991

Volume 3, Issue 3

Yo Family,

Good news and bad news, the good news is we have the building at Fort Cobb Lake reserved for our reunion, the bad news is July was all booked up and June only had one opening, the 16th, Father's Day, we took it. I hope everyone that planned to come will be able to make that day. We can have the building for 12 hours. We thought 10 til 10 would be good. We can change that if we desire to do so. Anyway it's all set for June 16th. We won't be having the pitch tournaments on that day but will have horseshoes. The pitch and maybe the fishing will be scheduled for another day.

Oh yeah, Carl or I one would like a lift to the lake. We finally went a couple of places together and have come to the conclusion that we aren't travel compatible. Last Sunday we went to Anadarko and he said he would never get in that car with me again. I don't understand. He's the only person I've ever known to stop and back up from mid intersection if the light turns yellow. He also plays with the power windows. You wouldn't think he'd get that upset over my trying to give him instructions.

You know the thing about housework is that there is seldom, if ever, any recognizable gain for any noticable period of time; without devoting your every breath and entire life to the task.

At times I've overheard women say how they enjoyed housework. Oh yes, I do too. Especially cleaning out the toilet bowl; oh, and the dishes, ah, yes, those lovely dirty dishes. The best kind are the ones that have set in the sink for about 3 days. Why sometimes I just let them set on purpose so I can get more enjoyment out of them. And laundry, well it became so easy that it started to get boring; so I allowed some of it to mildew, just for the pure bliss of it, and I always encourage my children to walk around outside in the red dirt so I can have so much more fun. I'm gonna have to get on Carl's case too, he just hasn't been spilling enough coffee lately. Oh well, maybe I could ask all of the kids friends over one of these days, that oughta sweeten life up a bit

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

2nd	Jared C Barnes	1989
7th	Linda Arletta Morris	1958
7th	Aaron Todd Craddock	1982
14th	Paul Woodrow Craddock	1938
15th	Charles Loveless	1930
15th	Nelda Smith	1937
15th	Delores Jane Morris	1957
16th	Dale Smith	1957
16th	Donald Paul McDougale
20th	Jeffrey Paul Craddock	1971
26th	Larry Joe Morris	1956
28th	Jacquelin Marie Craddock	1990
30th	Rodney Shane Craddock	1974
31st	Joe Bob Craddock	1953

NOTICE

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Lonnie Craddock should report to the Craddock Connection. His presence is requested at the family reunion this year. There will be a reward to anyone bringing him in; alive.

By the way, if you would like to contribute a prize or award for the reunion, you can give it to Dan or B.J., Dan wants to get more involved. Ha ha

Come on everybody help us make this a good time. Give us some suggestions. If it's all left up to me, why I might just have everyone clean the community building.

A worthless man digs up evil,
While his words are as a scorching fire.

A perverse man spreads strife,
And a slanderer separates intimate friends.

Proverbs 16: 27-28

love, 